

Chris Wright

President, Crescent Capital Group

Chris Wright is the President of Crescent, Head of Private Markets, and a member of Crescent Capital's Executive Committee. Prior to joining Crescent in 2001, Chris completed the Financial Management Program with the General Electric Company and upon completion, worked in various finance roles within GE Industrial Systems. Chris is a current and former member or observer of the Board of numerous private companies and other non-profit organizations. Chris received his MBA from Harvard Business School and his BA from Michigan State University.