

Tim Deacon

Executive Vice-President & Chief Financial Officer

Tim Deacon is Executive Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer of Sun Life and is a member of its Executive Team. He is responsible for leading the company's finance organization including Finance, Tax, Capital Management, Investor Relations, and strategic finance initiatives.

Tim joined Sun Life in 2024 and brings more than 20 years of global leadership experience across finance, strategy, risk, operations, investment and sustainability.

Prior to joining Sun Life, Tim held progressively senior roles in the Financial Services industry, most recently as the Chief Financial Officer at Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan.

Previously, he held executive roles at Manulife, including Group Controller and Global Chief Accounting Officer and Executive Vice President and CFO of Global Wealth and Asset Management where he was actively involved in setting business strategy, corporate development opportunities, leading large scale transformation initiatives and driving financial performance. Tim started his career at PwC LLP based in Toronto and London.

Tim is a Fellow of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Ontario (FCPA), a U.S. Certified Public Accountant in the State of Illinois and earned a Bachelor of Commerce from Queen's University.

As an active community leader, Tim is a board member and Treasurer of Business / Arts, a national not-for-profit arts organization, and St. Clement's School in Toronto. He is also a co-chair of the Canadian CFO Network of Accounting for Sustainability (A4S).

